  14. Governor Holden declared _____ law, which gave him unusual powers to keep order.
  15. Holden was _____—that is, charges were filed against him for the way he arrested so many people without charge.
  16. The most important amendments gave the legislature more control over the _____ in the state.

Another New State Constitution

Directions: In order to rejoin the union, North Carolina and other seceded states had to rewrite their state constitutions. A convention of delegates met in Raleigh in 1868 to craft a new document. The document differed greatly from the one that had been written just 33 years earlier. After reading in Chapter Nine about the revisions made, fill in the graphic organizer and then answer the questions below.

CONSTITUTION OF 1868

ISSUE	BEFORE THE CONVENTION	AFTER THE CONVENTION
Universal Manhood Suffrage
Public Offices Elected by the People
Services for the People

1. Seceded states were required to accept and approve which amendment to the U.S. Constitution? _____
2. What were some key improvements made to North Carolina right after the war under the leadership of W. W. Holden? _____
